

OPEN HOUSE

The mission of Open House: Meet in the Middle is to provide a convenient, no-cost location to host community-oriented meetings, presentations, gatherings or events. Sponsored by Beth Medved Waller as a WHAT MATTERS Initiative, it is her hope that it will draw groups, individuals and businesses to Front Royal's Historic Main Street and foster community engagement, networking and education.

Features of the space include:

- Touch screen computer/monitor (perfect for overhead presentations), speakers that can attach to monitor or phone/tablet, keyboard and mouse
- Wifi
- Two conference tables (one that sits 6 and one that can comfortably seat 8-10), Two desk areas, a round table that seats 4, Five folding tables that can be set up, a couch with coffee table and five other seating areas
- Storefront stage & small children's play area
- Flexible seating area and ample room for large gatherings (guests are invited to rearrange but are asked to return furniture to its original position at the conclusion of their use of the space)
- Access to the Daily Grind Coffee Shop (by opening french doors)
- Dorm refrigerator with small freezer, coffee maker, Keurig machine, Hot/Cold bottled water dispenser

GUESTS ARE FREE TO BE COMFORTABLE & REARRANGE BUT ARE ASKED TO RETURN ALL FURNITURE TO ITS ORIGINAL POSITION BEFORE LEAVING (and empty significant or smelly trash)

Beth provides this space at no-cost to the community-please help her keep it welcoming for all!

Ideal uses include:

Non profit meetings and functions, networking gatherings, religious groups/meetings/studies, fundraising endeavors, educational presentations, book clubs, meet ups, luncheons, community gatherings, think tank sessions, appreciation events, various clubs, private gatherings (if space is available).

Beth's wish is for the space not to be used for individuals or businesses selling their services or products. Sales-oriented companies may use this space for informational presentations (which could result in future business sales), but they may not enroll attendees in their services or transact sales at Open House.
